A List of Some Non-Hazardous Foods That Do NOT Require a Food Service Permit from the Local Health Department

1. Funnel Cakes
2. Candied Apples
3. Boiled Peanuts
4. Cotton Candy
5. Popcorn
6. Pork Rinds
7. Wheat Pellets
8. Dip or Scoop Ice Cream
9. Flavored Shaved Ice Products
10. Baked Goods

The North Carolina Department of Agriculture regulates non-hazardous baked goods operations, home canned goods, and other foods not regulated under by the local health department.

A potentially hazardous food requiring a Food Service Permit would have a pH level ≥ 4.6 OR a water activity value of ≥ 0.85 .

If you are interested in selling items not listed above, such as chicken, hamburgers, hot dogs, etc., you will need to comply with Health Regulations. Contact the Halifax County Health Department (252) 583-6651 for an application for temporary food establishment. This application will need to be submitted to the Halifax County Health Department a minimum of 15 days before the parade. There are no exceptions to this deadline.

NON-PROFITS: If you are a non-profit, you will not need a temporary food establishment permit, but you will need to provide the RR Parks & Recreation Department with a copy of your 501 c (3) letter from the IRS. We will then check and verify this upon receiving this information from you.
